_ROLE REVERSAL _

It was a perfect day in Bellwood. Perfect for the trio meant a day off aliens and a day to themselves alone. Of course they had to hangout at the beach and it was definitely Gwen's idea to begin with. And even if the guys resented it could they say no to Gwen's decision without getting killed by the beauty?

So , the famous trio were at the beach soaking in all the sun greedily! Well who knew when would they get the chance to be at the beach chilling out this way?

Ben was slurping in some sort of smoothie with the weirdest of the combinations...maybe onions and melons! Who knew?

Kevin apparently had no other job other than staring at his beloved redhead. She looked completely angelic in a cute white one-piece swimsuit showing bits of skin here and there. As for Gwen, she did nothing other than staring at the waters ahead of her. She was'nt enjoying the scene very much. As for her she was'nt sure when the perfect moment would be ruined for them. After all the heroes were definitely not on holidays' favourite list !

And...the worst of Gwen's fears got confirmed when a huge portal kind of thing appeared out of nowhere.

Ben immediately let go of his smoothie and had his palm over the omnitrix. Gwen flared up her manna in her palms and Kevin absorbed stone material from a rock lying nearby.

And out came a very funny looking guy. What was he? He definitely did not enimish at all. But for Gwen , anyone who dared ruin her day at the beach was an enemy. Without losing a moment she shot of a laser at him and his arm in the form of water gun (_yeah) _blew up.

POOF

He was gone. Completely disappeared .

"Ahhh!" came a girly shriek from Ben.

"Poo! You are such a cowardly dog Tennyson" Gwen gave a little lecture to her cousin.

But hey, was'nt all that a bit signature Kevin types?

"Aye! Where is the omnitrix?"

" It's with me."

" WHY do you sound so girly Tennyson?"

" Oh great! Now am even lecturing myself"

The water gun that blew up actually causes the souls and bodies of people to get mismatched.

So If they would be standing close together Miley Cyrus would sound absolutely like Barak Obama or anything like that!

It felt absolutely disgusting for Gwen to be in Ben's body.

" Eww Ben ! You smell like rotten onions and chili fries. By the way which deodorant do you use since it smells so awful. And what is this smell we are missing again? Yeah stupid smelly socks. It's really disgusting"

Kevin gave off a roar of laughter which seemed so different since practically there was a girl's voice behind it.

" It feels good to see Benji make fun of himself that way!"

Out came another roar of laughter .

"KEVVY please do not _misuse _my voice that way"

"Really Kevin" Ben "And what do you smell of? Grease and sweat . Have you ever had a bath in your entire life? I doubt it. "

" But I always love it when he smells of grease and all that. "

" Gwen" the real Ben in the body of Kevin "you make it sound like I am saying it all"

"Yup Gwen" real Kev body Gwen "do not disgrace my reputation by making it look like Ben saying it all about _me_"

And so the boys began to fight like ridiculous hell and next thing they wanted to do was find a cure for this stupid little problem.

Well , until Gwen interrupted.

"Can't we just stay outta here for the day and find a solution to this problem later? We hardly get a day off from kicking stupid alien butt." She was sobbing now. Practically through Ben's body.

All of them slumped down on the ground disgusted about their new bodies.

Well , all of them except our Kevin. He was too fascinated about watching his girl's body form up so close as if it were his own body.

The mind being his he began to droolâ€¦.until a sharp slap caught him off guard from Ben a.k.a Gwen.!

A/N: how did y'all like the story? For me it was pretty fun to write as well as a bit confusing. Wondering how much more bad it would have been if it included Julie as well?

Anyway, I was planning of a sequel to this where in they try to find a solution and all that happens in between. I have the plot ready in my head too. Lemme know of your views. Plss review!
